Bagging the Booty

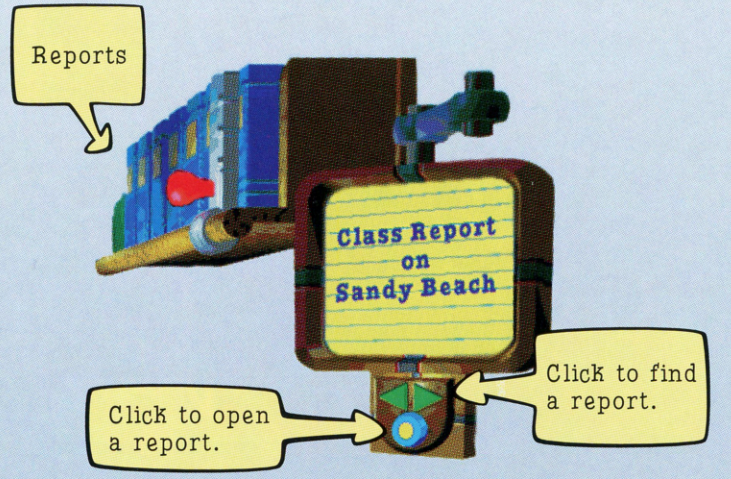
Following the Trail of Clues

To win this game, you've got to uncover the hidden treasure. And, to locate the treasure, you need to look for clues. The Friz will give you the first of three clues at the Sandy Beach. Each clue tells you what you need to do to find the next one.

When you arrive at the place where the treasure is hidden, you'll find a treasure scanner you can use to uncover your prize. So use your mind, and the treasure you will find!

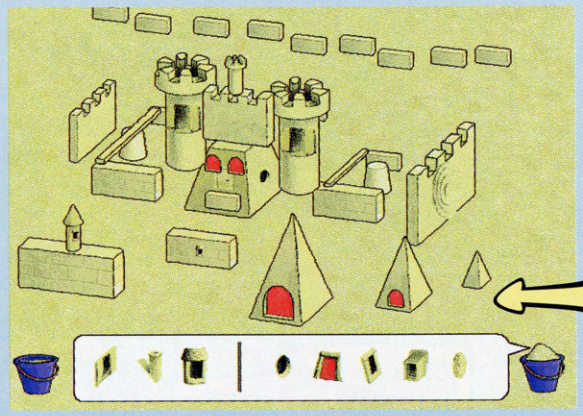
Reporting for Duty

When you get to a new place, don't forget to go to the back of the bus and check out the reports. While you're reviewing reports, keep in mind that your information hunt is also a treasure hunt.



Game Players — Listen Up!

All the ocean zones have exciting games and activities. Whenever you start something new, the Friz or one of your classmates will be right there to help you.

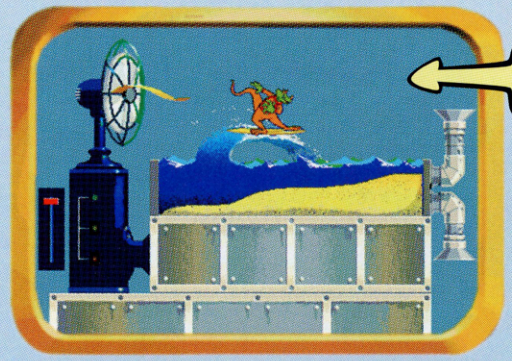


Sand Castle Activity

Salty Science

Each ocean zone has its own experiments. Check out the fun whenever you get to a new destination.

In the laboratory at the back of the bus, you'll conduct experiments and learn about how plants and animals live together in and around the sea.



Experiment Station

Seeing the Sea

Want to see more of an ocean zone? Click the BIG arrow when it appears on the right or left side or top and bottom of your screen. To travel to a new destination, click when the cursor becomes a little school bus at the edge of your screen.
